Forecast For Highland & Eilean Siar
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 25 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Most dry, sunny and warm. Some drizzle in far north.

Today:
A fine, dry, sunny and warm day for the majority with temperatures highest towards Fort William. However areas of low cloud, fog patches and drizzle occasionally affecting Caithness, Sutherland, the Hebrides and western coastal fringes of Wester Ross. Northerly breezes. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Tonight:
Lochaber and up the west coastal fringes of the mainland staying dry with clear spells. Elsewhere turning rather cloudy with some patchy light rain developing. Light northerly winds. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Thursday:
Rather cloudy start, but sunny spells soon increasing on a fine, dry day. However temperatures significantly down from Wednesday. Northerly breezes. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Settled fine, dry weather for the vast majority with plenty of sunshine and light winds. Temperatures not up to the levels of Wednesday, but still significantly above the seasonal averages.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.